In a Nutshell

Samson is stunning with his sky blue eyes and flame points! And his carriage and posture are sophisticated and poised. He's also a perfect scaredy cat ...and... one of the most loving kitties you'll ever have the good fortune to meet!

From the beginning...

Samson got his name because of his strong, muscular little body and his dense fur. He was a beautiful tiny kitten. And that was before his eyes had taken on the grown-up hue; that gorgeous sky-blue they are now. He was very easily startled, and every new thing made him want to run to safety and watch to see what was up. He can still be startled causing him to hide, but since he's adapted to his surroundings, he's more quickly able to recognize that whatever scared him isn't a threat.

Once Samson got over his fear of us, he became super affectionate and playful. (See his first day exploring his room: <https://youtu.be/D57lvdJCWmY>) Even when he's playing, which he does all the time, he's sensational. He takes a bit of time to warm up to people, but once he does, look out! He's an absolute lover. He'll purr readily and loves to be in your lap and be stroked. He'll seek you out and come and curl up near you or on your lap (lap preferred) and when he looks at you with that awesome love in his eyes, you're hooked. He's so affectionate, he'll make you melt when he shows you how much he loves you.

As he's grown, his appearance has become even more lovely. He looks like he might be a big boy, retaining his lean physique. Samson loves to burrow into blankets, pillows, your sweater or jacket, his bed, etc. He loves playing from beneath any of those things. He's strong and plays very hard. He hops around and on top of his siblings. He also stands on his hind feet, front paws spread wide and then hops onto his target. He loves jumping and catching toys or towels or basically anything up in the air. Even though he plays hard and can be rough with his siblings, there's not a mean bone in his lithe little body.

When Samson's playing, he chatters quite often. He also calls out in a sweet voice when he's looking for you or wants you to play with him. He very often chases his tail, which is just so funny! His very favorite toys (besides his tail) are the cat dancer to chase and catch, and yarn pom poms which he bats around the floor or carries in his mouth. He grabs a pompom and stalks around growling at anyone (other kitty) who tries to take it. He loves to play tag with his brothers and sisters and race from one end of the house to the other. Watch him in action: https://youtu.be/AyJ0-\_LeLqk

Samson loves helping me clean up in their room. Every time I toss a toy into one of the beds, he hops in to play with it. When I shake out blankets or towels, he hops up to catch the flailing ends. He especially loves helping me sweep up the floors. He plants himself right in front of the broom and loves to catch it when it passes over him, or run after it when it moves beneath him.

Samson is great in the litter box and eats dry food fine. He loves his canned food! He does use a vertical scratching post, but will also use whatever is in front of him, which can be inappropriate, such as the sofa. He responds well to direction and correction, but he's still a baby so he forgets quickly. He loves to be brushed, but also likes to play with the brush. He even likes to have his stomach brushed - hold his front paws up and brush from the bottom toward his head. I think he can't figure out what to make of it.

As He Moves On

Due to his pale coloring and being easily spooked Samson would not be suited to being an outdoor kitty. He enjoys looking out the window at everything that moves, but he will love being safe indoors. Despite being easily spooked, he bonds very quickly and easily with the person he's with. He loves deeply and he's generous with other cats and with his people.
